KILLED FOR REVENGE.

Alexander Masterton, a director of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, and seventy-two years of age, was shot and killed yesterday after-noon by James Neale Plumb, in the and burns, for which it is unequalled. Burlington Hotel, on west Thirtieth street, New York. Masterton was shot five times and died within an hour or

They met by appointment, and the murder was premeditated, as evidenced by a voluminous statement written in advance by Plumb and given out after his arrest. Plumb, in his statement issued to the public, and entitled "Why I. J. Neale Plumb, shot Alexander Masterton," declared that he had been actuated to do the shooting because of systematic hounding of him by Materton. Plumb declared further that Masterton had not only ruined him flusnessly, bu had attempted ate the affections of his wife and midren and to cause his social down-

A chambermand at the Burnington, who was the only one near the room is which the shooting occurred, told the police that she heard the men in an conversation just before she heard the pistol shots. One of the men, she said, and she was positive that it was not Matterton, said in a loud, angry tone "I will not be satisfied with that amount." Two shots were fired in quick succession a moment later, and then three more. Plumb came out of the room perfectly collected and said

'There's a man in trouble in there ' He then went downstairs and into the reception room, where, later, he was srrested.

VANQUISHED SNAKE BUT SCARED Horse.-Herbert J. Ashley, a contractor, was driving along Ridgewood avenue, in Glen Ridge, N. J., on Tuesday and Smell. No Cocaine, morning, when he espied a big black No injurious Drug. Full size snake basking in the sun by the side of the road. He got out of his carriage and with his whip strack at the reptile. The snake coiled for a spring, but as it did so Ashley struck at it again, and this time the lash struck the snake fairly in the middle and broke its back. The sharp crack of the whip frightened Ashley's horse and he ran away. Many persons in its path had narrow escapes. The horse ran nearly four miles and then stopped. As nley say that hereafter snakes may bask in the sunshing Syrap and take ne other kind. The snake was about five feet long and as big around as any average man's wrist.

COW OBJECTS TO A RED TIE.-A red necktie worn Napoleon B. Adams, of Bloomfield, N. J., so enraged a vicious cow yesterday that the beast attacked him and almost trampled him to death. Adams was digging sod in Thomas street when the animal attacked him and tossed him on her thorns. The cow then began to trample upon him. Adams would probably have been trampled to death but for the timely arrival of Superintendent of Police Gilhert, Thomas North and Fred Doner, jr. The three men went to his aid with plumbers' tools and a fence rail and succeeded in beating the cow off. Adams was picked up in a semi-con-scious state and conveyed to his home we guarantee all stock as medical attention. His injuries almedical attention. His injuries, although very painful, are not considered serious, and he is expected to recover.

THREE KILLED BY LIGHTNING .-Yesterday afternoon, two miles west of Terra Alta, W. Va., Howard Fraley, Henry Lewis, and Ray Lewis, Balti more and Onio trackmen, sought shelter from a thunder-storm in a shanty near the tracks, which was struck by Fish daily from the shores of lightning. Fraley and Henry Lewis and will supply customers in were killed outright, and Ray Lewis was severely shocked, but will recover. Melville Strambaugh was killed by lightning at Ostersburg, a few miles above Cumberland, Md. He had driven into a shed, which was struck. His two norses were also killed.

AN AGED LADY EURNED TO DEATH -A distressing accident is reported from the neighborhood of Malmaison, in Pittsylvania county, Va, yesterday. Miss Betsy Warren went with her brother, Eobert Warren, into a field near their house for the purpose of burning a growth of broom straw from a spot selected for a garden. While the field was after the clothing of Miss Warren caught the basee in a moment the flames enveloped after the clothing of Miss Warren caught the baze in a moment the flames enveloped her figure, burning the clothing entirely from the body. Death resulted in a few minutes. The deceased was about seventy years of age and a member of a highly respected family.
